- The Help

• By: Kathryn Stockett

Three ordinary women are about to take one extraordinary step. Twenty-two-year-old Skeeter has just returned home after graduating from Ole Miss. She may have a degree, but it is 1962, Mississippi, and her mother will not be happy till Skeeter has a ring on her finger. Skeeter would normally find solace with her beloved maid Constantine, the woman who raised her, but Constantine has disappeared and no one will tell Skeeter where she has gone. Aibileen is a black maid, a wise, regal woman raising her seventeenth white child. Something has shifted inside her after the loss of her own son, who died while his bosses looked the other way. She is devoted to the little girl she looks after, though she knows both their hearts may be broken.

April 30th 10am - 2pm

The Library has a new selection of agriculture books graciously donated by Indiana Farm Bureau. Please stop in and check them out! Here are a few from the selection that might be of interest to you!

Perennial Exchange

Starting April 25th

Is your perennial flowerbed getting too crowded?

Divide your plants and bring the extras to the library for the perennial

Exchange. Take home a new plant to add to your gardens. The plants will be in the vestibule of the Osgood Library. Please bring plants in some kind of container and identify the plant you are bringing to exchange.

For more info. call the Osgood Library: 689-4011

Gently used books are graciously accepted.

Please contact the library to arrange a donation.
