

Sales and Solicitations on Osgood & Milan Public Library Property

1. At its discretion, the library will provide a bulletin board and space for pamphlets, flyers, newsletters, and any other items that promote not-for-profit activities and education opportunities in Ripley County or in Indiana.

2. A not-for-profit group using a library meeting room may distribute pamphlets, flyers, newsletters, and other items to persons attending the meeting. The items can be distributed only during the meeting and only in the meeting room. No soliciting will be allowed outside of the meeting room.

3. Restricted from the exterior grounds of the library property (including parking lots) are the following:
 - a. Food Sales by vendors not approved by the Osgood Public Library.
 - b. Any entertainment or exhibition not approved by the Osgood Public Library.
 - c. Pamphlets and other advertisements or solicitations for:
 - Political parties and candidates*
 - Trade unions/collective bargaining groups*
 - Religious groups*
 - Not-for-profit charities and associations (not approved by the Osgood Library)*
 - Profit-making companies and organizations*
 - Any individuals or groups of individuals promoting a concept or product*